

Performance Commentary

May was a volatile month for the global equity market. The fund's top-three performers in absolute terms were Microsoft, Autoliv and Adobe. Microsoft continues to grow in the cloud segment, Autoliv's corporate split is garnering attention and Adobe's structural advantage in content creation is becoming better understood.

The bottom-three performers were NN Group, IRSA and Samsung Electronics. NN Group reported slightly weak Q1 numbers. IRSA suffered from the deteriorating macro environment in Argentina. Samsung Electronics executed a stock split but the negative performance was mainly noise.

The fund initiated three new positions in May. After a brief hiatus, the Finnish forest-based bio-industry leader UPM is back in SKAGEN Global. This is a textbook example of when reality differs from perceived reality. While graphic paper is in secular decline, UPM is transforming itself into a different animal under a highly skilled management team and a prudent board ensuring superior capital allocation. We also purchased the credit rating agency Moody's as we believe that their long-term opportunity to capitalise on higher bond issuance in emerging markets as they mature is undervalued. We will disclose the third company once we have built up the position sufficiently.

The fund selects undervalued companies from around the world, including emerging markets, with attractive risk-reward for long-term investors.

The objective is to provide the best possible risk adjusted return.

The fund is suitable for those with at least a five year investment horizon.
