

Performance Commentary

The first month of 2019 was a stark contrast to the bleak end of 2018. Following a strong rebound in global equity markets, the Nordic markets followed suit and SKAGEN Vekst outperformed its combined benchmark index.

The top performer in the month was US Citigroup which reported strong profit figures on the back of higher than expected cuts in expenses and loan losses. Our long-standing holding in Norwegian Bonheur also contributed, as investors continued to buy into the concealed values within the holding company and there was further clarification around their ownership in Dolphin Drilling. The Q4 report should provide more transparency around renewables, profitability and the company's considerable cash pile.

The largest negative contributor was our Swedish telecom provider Telia, which took a breather after a strong finish to 2018 on the back of positive news-flow. Our Norwegian based dry bulk carrier Golden Ocean Group also had a tough month as mining problems in Brazil are reducing the demand for dry bulk ships. We continue to see good upside and sound operations in the company and expect market balance to return in the latter part of 2019.
